

Video Discussion Questions

- What scenes from the film made the most impression on you? Why?
- ‘Svetlana’ has lost everything – her family, her country, her identity, her personal safety. How would you offer comfort or hope to someone in her situation?
- This film is a news report from Al-Jazeera. How much, for better and for worse, does the media influence attitudes towards women and violence within your culture?
- Human trafficking is a globalised industry, affecting every continent.
  - What are the best things about living in a globalised world?
  - What are the biggest disadvantages?
  - Do Christians, as citizens of a ‘global village’, have specific responsibilities? What are they?
- Women are often tricked into slavery by other women. How do you make sense of the relationships between victims and persecutors in the world of human trafficking?
- What, if anything, can you and your communities do to alleviate the plight of today’s slaves?

Bible Study Discussion Questions

- According to you, what is this story about?
- What possible themes comes out of this story?
- Who are the main characters of this story and what do you know about each one of them?
- Do we have women like Ruth and Naomi in our communities?
- What are their stories?
- How can we effectively journey with them?
- How can we prophetically challenge socio-economic systems that keep on making widows vulnerable?
- As a community of women and men, how can we ensure that we have kind hearted and un-abusive Boaz’s that will work for gender and socio-economic justice for all?